

Training at Chaffey College

- C-tech Certification

Smart Home and Telecom Training: Prepares students for a variety of occupations in the rapidly growing Smart Home and Telecom industries.

Training includes:

- Residential Audio/Video
- Principles of AC/DC Electricity
- Data, Voice, and Video
- Analog/Digital Concepts
- Interpretation of blueprints
- Installation of multi-zoned systems
- UTP and coaxial system testing

- EERT - Energy Efficiency Retrofit Technician Training:

Introduction into the Renewable Energy/Energy Efficiency industries.

Training includes:

- Weatherization
- Energy Auditing
- Solar Photovoltaic
- Solar Thermal

- Automotive Repair Technology: Students receive the occupational training required for employment as an entry-level Automotive Service Technician.

Training includes:

- Basic automotive maintenance techniques
- Various cutting edge service operations
- Utilization of diagnostic equipment
- Professional Ethics
- Safety
- Environmental/Consumer protection

All participants must be 18 years of age, work ready, and males must be selective service registered. Class lengths and hours vary by subject.

Successful completion leads to industry-recognized certifications.

Some classes are scheduled to begin January, 2010.

For more information contact us at (909) 652-7641 or (909) 652-7642.

Chaffey College